

Post-Master EU VAT 2027

Post-Master EU VAT

“The Post-Master EU VAT is essential for every VAT professional who wants to take his or her knowledge of VAT and related subjects to the next level.”

◀ PROF. MADELEINE MERKKX

“I had the pleasure to take part in the EU VAT Post-Master. This Post-Master was a great opportunity for me to broaden my knowledge of VAT and to connect with other indirect tax professionals. Definitely a recommended experience!”

◀ FRITS PASCH

Tax professionals active in the field of VAT find themselves in a constantly changing playing field under the influence of case law and regulations changes, both from a national and an EU perspective. VAT has a major impact on the tax position of companies. This means that VAT-specialists need to keep up with the developments. You and/or your employees want to be aware of the latest developments in the field. You want to acquire the in-depth knowledge required for this in a practical and effective manner.

Together with fellow participants from the tax consultancy practice, the business community, Ministries, the Tax Authorities, the judiciary and academia, at EFS you learn to recognize the tax implications of the changing VAT rules. The Post-Master EU VAT covers various subjects in an integrated manner. Focus is on the EU law approach. The programme consists of pre-recorded lectures, available to watch at your convenience, which complement both the on-campus and online components of the programme. The on-campus programme will take place from 10 to 12 March 2027, followed by an online programme running from 16 March to 20 April 2027. The online programme consists of two sessions per week, from 16:00 to 19:00 CET (please see the programme for the exact dates and times). The Post-Master will conclude with a case study, panel discussion and a certificate ceremony. During the mornings of the on-campus programme*, there will be time to study, explore the city of Rotterdam or, for example, respond to urgent emails.

Due to the increasing role of Indirect Taxes within the tax spectrum, the focus is placed on the topics that are most relevant for every experienced tax professional working regularly in the field of VAT. The most recent developments within known VAT topics are covered, such as tax liability, place of supply of services, taxable amount and input VAT deduction. It also zooms in on specific topics such as the VAT status of holding companies and share transactions, VAT in a digital environment and various exemptions, with specific aspects that are relevant to the financial sector.

In addition, related topics, such as the legislative process, auditing and business strategies, are addressed in order to better understand the context of the rules and VAT processes as well. We will pay special attention to the impact of technological developments on VAT within a group of companies. In all sessions, there will be many opportunities for discussion and asking questions. Exchanging practical experiences with lecturers and among participants is an important part of this Post-Master's course. To successfully complete the Post-Master's course and receive a certificate of successfully completing your PostMaster degree, students are required to write a paper and defend it before the EFS examination committee. This paper offers the opportunity to study a VAT topic of your choice in depth, with committed and personal guidance from lecturers in the writing process.

The lectures are delivered by distinguished guest speakers and renowned professors coming from different corners of the VAT playing field. They are experienced lecturers and leaders in their fields, guaranteeing a high level of education.

The program is aimed at tax practice professionals with two to nine years of work experience, who wish to broaden and deepen their knowledge of EU Law related to VAT. We warmly invite every tax professional in the tax consultancy practice, the business world, academia, the judiciary, other legal professions, Ministries or the Tax Authorities to participate in the Post-Master.

Because of the diversity of the participants, the training offers an extraordinary opportunity to further expand and strengthen your network. Do you work as a tax expert in one of the EU Member states, or even outside the EU, but working on EU VAT topics regularly? If so, the program will also be of interest to you. The admission requirements for the program can be found on page 11.

*Online participation during the on campus part of the program is possible for participants living outside of Europe. Please consult the programme coordinator for your options.
